FITCHBURG HIGH SCHOOL

Lots of luck "Deluce."

CLASS OFFICERS

Robert Anderson Wentworth

Actions, looks, words, steps form the alphabet by which you may spell character.

Bob.

This president of '40 at F.H.S.
Plays tennis and basketball with success.
He belongs to the Hi-Y and DeMolay
And ran in our Junior-Senior Relay.
He's a member of Pep Club and the Dramatic.
Dependable? My! It's really fanatic!
He's quiet, at times, but he's also witty
And for every social, he's on the committee.
He's also served ably as a marshal
But to fun that's unruly he is not partial.
To our class Bob Wentworth is surely true
And, girls, he's handsome, too!

Tennis 2, 3, Basketball, Junior Class Party, Junior Prom, Junior-Senior Reception, Junior-Senior Relay 3, Dramatic Club, Pep Club, Class Play 4.

Arlene Reed Stevenson

Always ready, always there, always willing to do her share.

Stevie, our vice-president, has a winning personality, wonderful poise, and unequaled popularity. Her golden locks, friendly smile, and sweet manner have captivated the hearts of many. Enthusiastic and peppy as a cheerleader, she has always had our cheering section at her command! Athletics interest Arlene and she excels in them. Her leadership appears in the numerous activities in which she participates. Hockey 2, Cheerleader, Dramatic Club, Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, 4, Debating Club Open Meeting 3, 4, Councillor, Junior Party, Junior Prom 3, Pep Club, Secretary, Eastern Division of Student Council of Massachusetts, Class Play 4.

Margaret Louise Vincent

*Her modest answer and graceful air
Show her wise and good as she is fair.*

Peg, the perfect secretary, is studious, zealous, and her friendly attitude and willing understanding make her a delightful acquaintance. Her pleasing personality, contagious smile, and ever enduring enthusiasm have quickly spread her fame as one of the popular members of our class. From a demure child, she has blossomed into one of the most humorous and fun-loving girls in school. Hockey 2, French 2, 3, Basketball 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Red and Gray Board 3, 4, Round Table, Pep Club, Class Play 4.

David George Scanlon

Common sense is nature's gift, but reason is an art.

Dave, one of the most popular boys in our class, is liked by one and all. His favorite expression is, "Confidentially, just between you and me." Dave is one of the best dancers in the class. The vehicle you see him riding around in is called, "Scanlon's One-Man Band." Dave has been very successful as our class treasurer. Band, Orchestra 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Councillor 2, 4, Debating Club 3, 4, Class Play 4.

*Lots of Luck
to you!
Arlene*

*Best always to

*To a

Allan Jacob Aalto

Silence is more eloquent than words.

Allan is a quiet member of our class. Although he has not participated in any school sports, he enjoys skiing and photography. We do not know his future plans.

Sidney Byron Abell

Good looks are a great recommendation in the business of mankind.

Sidney is a member of the Hi-Y club and co-editor of its newspaper. He is a member of the club's bowling league and is a candidate for the school tennis team. Sidney hopes to become an advertising manager. Councillor 2, Intramural Basketball 2, 3, 4, Tennis 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Sumner Norman Alperin

He who binds his soul to knowledge, seals the key to heaven.

When Worcester Classical lost Sumner, Fitchburg gained a high ranking student and a fine football player. For amusement Al collects stamps, engages in photography, and is a member of the Debating Club. After high school he plans to enter Worcester Tech or some other technical college, in order to study electrical engineering. Football, Debating Club, Round Table 4.

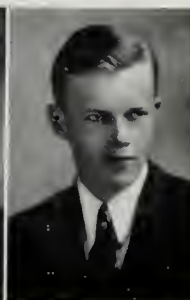

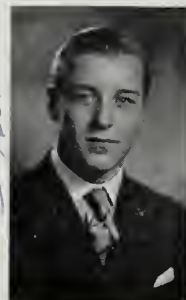

Herbert Allen Autio

An honest man's word is as good as his bond.

Herby is one of our few redheaded boys. Though he has not taken part in many school activities, Herby is quite busy outside of school with his hobbies, chemistry, hunting, and fishing. During his summer vacations at Wyman's Pond, Herby indulges mostly in hunting and fishing. He intends to be a research chemist some day. Councillor 3.

Agnes Sophie Adams

*May she continue and proceed
In honor's fair career.*

Agnes uses most of her spare time on two of her hobbies, which are a collection of pictures of motion picture actors and actresses and a collection of poems. Both are large and interesting and all the pictures and poems are very well arranged. Doing things so neatly and carefully will help her very much if she becomes a bookkeeper.

Dorothy Edna Aho

Youth comes but once in a lifetime.

Edna is one of our many blue-eyed blonds. We miss her greatly at school affairs which she too infrequently attends. Deck tennis seems to be the only sport in which she is interested. Lowe Playground also seems to be a place of interest for Edna.

Bessie Angelos

Knowledge is more than equivalent to force.

Bessie is one of the few fortunate girls of our class who have lovely brown eyes. She always seems to be in a hurry to get somewhere. We expect Bessie to have a smart little bakery shop of her own very soon because she has already started her training by working in a bakery store after school. Although she has not participated in many school activities, Bessie will be remembered by everyone because of her ready smile.

Virginia Agnes Andrew

A comrade blythe and full of cheer.

Ginnie is one of our more active seniors. Besides being a member of our Pep Club she is also interested in sports, especially basketball in which she ranks tops. Ginnie has a liking for classical music and melodious voices. We wonder why. She has a Scotch sense of humor which, it is rumored, runs through the family. Her ambition for the future is to attend Bradford Junior College and Smith where she intends to major in history and math. Glee Club 2, Basketball, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Junior Prom 3, Pep Club, French Club 4.

Roland Joseph Babineau

Action is the proper food of life.

Roland is short, quiet, and good-natured. He's a friendly chap and a good pal. Although he has not participated in sports to any great extent, he is a loyal rooter of our teams. Roland is a commercial course student. Dramatic Club 2, 3.

John Christ Baimas

An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow.

John, one of our most studious boys, is greatly interested in following current events in the newspapers and magazines. John represented Fitchburg High School at the Cushing Academy Debating Clinic and is the president of the Boys' Debating Club. He is also the Business Manager of the Red and Gray. His interest in life is the study and practice of law, and he plans to attend Harvard College and later Harvard Law. Orchestra, Band 2, French Club, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior Prom, Councillor 3, Debating Club, Red and Gray Board 2, 3, 4, Latin Club 4.

Paul Joseph Banahan

Conduct is three-fourths of our life and its largest concern.

Paul is one of the quieter members of our class. He is an earnest student and has also completed four years of Latin. His ambition is to be a doctor. He has a friendly disposition which should be appreciated by his patients. Latin Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Pasquale Vincent Barone

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine.

Pat is one of the quieter members of our class. He is an earnest student and has also completed four years of Latin. His ambition is to be a doctor. He has a friendly disposition which should be appreciated by his patients. Latin Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Theresa Cecile Aubin

Laugh, and the world laughs with you.

Theresa is one of the light-haired girls in the commercial group. She is fairly tall, has shining bright eyes, and is in great demand because of her delightful laugh and cheerful manner. Although she has shown an interest in secretarial work, her plans for the future are undecided. She may be seen at the movies regularly and her hobby is collecting photographs of screen stars. She is also a Girl Scout in Troop 13.

Lauretta Mae Balzer

Sport is the bloom and glow of perfect health.

Here is a girl we seldom see unhappy. She is a staunch friend, and full of fun. Her merry eyes show, as does the whistle in her throat, a love of mischief and gaiety. She, however, has serious thoughts for the future, and aspires to be a great swimmer. Her crawl stroke is beautiful to see. She is one of our star basketball players. Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Helen Elizabeth Barholm

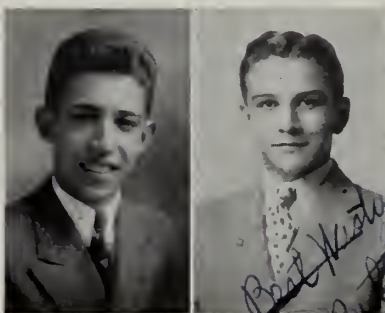

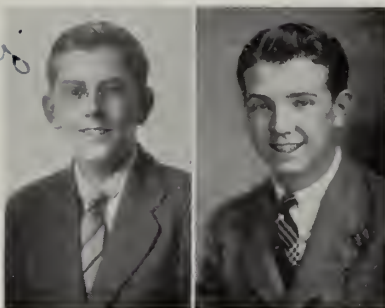

*Enjoy the present smiling hour
And put it out of fortune's power.*

When you see a curly blond head bobbing along the corridor, you may be certain it is Helen. Helen's cheerfulness will surely chase those glooms away. She can laugh at a joke, be it on herself or someone else. Her time is pretty well occupied, either in reading, drawing, or working at the B. F. Brown School.

Ida Helen Barrett

A willing heart makes a willing hand.

Ida is one Westminsterite who should get a medal for braving last winter's storms in order to come to school. She lives a long distance from the busline and many times had to wait for the bus by the side of the road. However, endurance is very essential when one is going to be a nurse.

BOULDER

1940

Robert Nelson Beauregard

The man worth while is the one that will smile when everything goes wrong.

Bob, as he is more popularly known to all his classmates, is a fellow of many qualities, all good. He is usually quite retiring but can hold his own in any animated argument or conversation. His cheery nod and smile are known to all, even the lowly sophomore, and his trumpet playing ability is recognized throughout the school. His ambition is to go to business college and become an accountant. Band 2, 3, 4, Baseball 3, Football, Dramatic Club, Orchestra 3, 4, Pep Club 4.

Dino Mario Belli

A tender smile, our sorrows' only balm.

Dino is one of our efficient marshals who is employed outside of school as a garden worker on Stockwell's farm. He also raises his own rabbits. He intends to leave all this, however, for the Coast Guard or the Navy.

Ralph Eugene Bennett

The mildest manners with the bravest mind.

Ralph's blue eyes and sparkling smile convince us that he is an Irish lad. Ralph doesn't take his school work very seriously. As he tends to keep things to himself we have not been informed about his plans for the future.

David William Berlyn

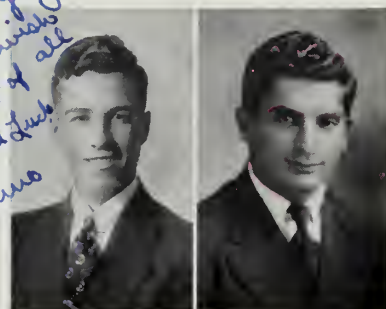

Reading maketh a full man.

Dave numbers among his extra-curricular activities the presidency of the Y.P.H.A. of which he has been an active member for some time. He has been listed also, for the past two years, on the rolls of the Debating Club. He devotes his leisure time to the writing of poetry, but as a life's work he is more interested in business administration. French Club 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Relay 3, Debating Club 3, 4.

To a fellow orchestra man and a swell fellow. The Best always Bob

To a regular guy may I wish the Best of all the good luck - Dino

Best of Luck To a "real" friend "Dave"

Eleanor Evelyn Basque

A sweet, obliging, kindly soul.

Eleanor is a quiet but most enjoyable classmate. She is always polite, friendly, and entertaining. She plans to become a secretary. Her hobbies are collecting souvenirs and photographs. She has also been very active outside school, mainly in sports. Basketball 2, 3, 4, French Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Hockey 4.

Rose Genevieve Battistella

Her voice was ever soft, gentle, and low.

Rose's ready smile and happy disposition have made her a likable girl. She has taken part in many athletic activities and gives the school her loyal support. Her hobby is collecting postcards from various places. Her ambition is to become a dressmaker. Volleyball 2, 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Hockey 2, 4.

Lorraine Adrienne Beaulac

On the way to success.

Lorraine is a gay, jolly student whose ambition is to become another Florence Nightingale. She has indeed all the good qualities of one. Her hobbies are drawing and painting. With these interests, we are sure that the future will be a pleasant one for her. Volleyball 2, Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Blanche Florence Begnoche

Who can forget the rich light of her smile?

Blanche is happy-go-lucky and doesn't seem to have a care in the world. She is always getting into mischief but has learned to wiggle out of it tactfully. Blanche is fond of sports, especially basketball. She is a business course student and hopes to become a secretary in the future. Hockey, Volleyball 2, 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4.

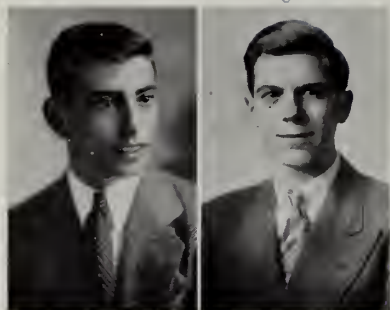

Happy Ending! "Change"

Best of Luck "Rose"

Best wishes from Blanche

William Peter Bianchini

An honest man's word is as good as his bond.
Willie is a little fellow with a big smile. His dancing ability, we are all familiar with. At present he helps Rudy with his dancing studio. Willie is a great runner and his plans for the future run along this line. Willie tells us that girls do not seriously interest him for he is bent on remaining a bachelor. Track Team 2, 3, Junior Prom 3, Relay Team 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Pep Club 4.

Kirwan Albert Bilson

A smile is worth a million dollars but it doesn't cost a cent.
Kirwin goes by the name of Ace in Westminster, a name which was given him because of his skill in all sports, especially softball. He received, also, another nickname, Speed, a result of his work in his father's store. If he gets into the Navy, which is his ambition, he may acquire another nickname. Track 3.

Robert Elmer Blanchard

Character is higher than intellect.
Robert is the strong silent type, and can usually be found talking in the corridor. Although not an overzealous student, Bob is an excellent dancer, and this seems to him to be more important than school work. Bob's memory is not of the best, and it is perhaps because of this that he intends to become a plumber, so as to continue the plumber's custom of forgetting tools.

Hector Ernest Bolduc

An ounce of cheerfulness is worth a pound of sadness.
Hector has one guiding passion in his life—his Ford. As soon as school is over he may be seen dashing for his beloved jalopy, and as far as we have been able to find out, he seems to spend most of his time tinkering with it. At one time during his school career he sang first bass in the Glee Club and did an excellent job of it. At present he works for the Bolduc Ice Corporation, and someday hopes to take charge of the business.

Yvanna Mary Belletete

Be good, sweet maid, and let who will, be clever.
Yvanna is a quiet member of the class. She gave equal amounts of time to her studies and social activities. Her great ambition is to become a nurse.

Gertrude Lucille Belliveau

Politeness costs nothing, and gains everything.
Gert with her dark hair and eyes is an interesting person to know. She is a swell pal, a grand sport, and one of the best dancers in our class. Her ability at artistic decoration was proved by her work on the Junior Prom Committee. Although we feel that her art could carry her far, Gert's plans for the future are comparatively domestic. Hockey, Dramatic Club 2, Volleyball 2, 3, Junior Prom 3.

Doris Mae Berry

Enjoy life while you may.
Doris is very, very quiet for so big a girl. She is a willing worker, and will stick to a thing until it's finished. Doris has a sense of humor, which, perhaps, helps her in taking care of children after school. Her goal is office work. Basketball 2.

Yvonne Bernadette Blanchette

And every hour, a thought in readiness.
Yvonne is that jolly, medium-size, brown-haired girl you see passing quietly in the corridors. Although she belongs to the commercial group she does not believe in studying too much, although she has fairly good marks to her credit. She belongs to the 4H Club, which was organized by a group of girls in South Fitchburg. Her hobbies are collecting stamps and photographs of her friends. After graduation, she would like to work in an office.

Alfred William Boucher

He most prevails who nobly dares.

Alfred has a quiet but likable personality. He spends a great deal of his time reading and is well versed in many subjects. During the years that he has spent in Fitchburg High we all have come to like him, and feel sure that he will be a success in the paper business which he has chosen for his life's work.

Gerard Jean Boudreau

Chance everywhere has power.

Here's a fellow who knows of things to do and how to do them. In school he's the tall, rather quiet young man with the curly hair that all girls seem to like. And if you want to know anything about U. S. History, Gerard is the fellow to ask.

John Vearen Bowers

Gaiety is the soul's health.

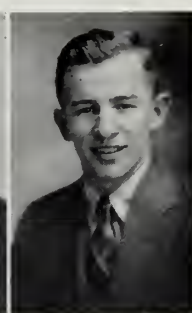

The Great Dubber must have found the fountain of youth because he always appears as fresh as a spring day even though he maintains a job at the Y, goes to at least one dance a week, has had dates with thirty-six different girls, belongs to the Hi-Y, worries about his future, and leads our cheers. What a man! Football, Debating Club 2, Basketball, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Cheerleader 3, 4, Pep Club, Open Meeting, Senior Class Play 4.

Lawrence Newell Brigham

A tender heart; a will inflexible.

Larry's reliability is well-known, for during the past three years he has held several responsible positions in school. Since his sophomore year he has been a business manager of the Red and Gray. During his junior year he was a member of the Class Ring Committee, and this year he has been a collector of class dues. Red and Gray Board 2, 3, 4, Class Ring 3, Band 3, 4, Class Dues 4.

Gloria Ann Boscardin

Work well done, will always aid one.

Gloria is one of our special honor pupils. Her scholastic ability has made her well-known to all the class members. She has never come to school with lessons unprepared. We know she will be an efficient teacher, for such is her ambition. Hockey 2, Deck Tennis, Latin Club, Red and Gray Board 3, 4, Round Table, Councillor 4.

Irene Rose Boucher

Nothing is impossible to a willing heart.

Irene is a very pleasant girl with a ready smile for everyone. She is one of the few lucky girls who have been chosen to be a Junior Member of the Fitchburg Women's Club. Irene's ambition is to be a teacher of either French or history. Basketball, Volleyball 2, French Club 3, Dramatic Club, Write-up Committee 4.

Claire Gloria Boudreau

Earnestness commands the respect of mankind.

Claire is one of our most efficient part-timers. She is learning the trade of a librarian from Miss Sherwin. Being musically inclined she enjoys strumming her guitar and yodeling. Claire is also a collector of stamps and snapshots. After graduation she wishes to be an efficient and accurate secretary. Volleyball 2, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 4, French Club 4.

Laura Mary Boudreau

Chatter helps the world go round.

Laura is usually considered a quiet girl. She is short, small, has dark hair, and sparkling brown eyes. She doesn't believe in studying too much. She passes her time studying photography and she now develops her own films. She loves to collect snapshots. She would like to become a typist after graduation. French Club 2, 3, 4.

*Best wishes
Gloria*

Let's have fun

George Edward Brown

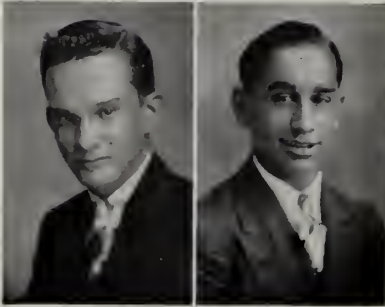

He possesses a hearty appetite.

George claims he is going to be a big game hunter. He is a happy kind of fellow and is always ready with a quick comeback. Collecting medals was once his hobby but he decided that button pins would be much easier to obtain. He also collects keys and padlocks which he rattles on Hallowe'en night.

Arthur William Brusila

An honest heart possesses a kingdom.

Art helps, as a stage hand, to put on our dramatic productions. He is very much interested in photography. Arthur is in the trombone section of the band. Art tells good fish stories because he has had lots of practice for his hobby is fishing. Band 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Walter Elmer Buck

Learning, like the lunar beam, affords light.

Some of Bucky's virtues are his wavy blond hair, his blue eyes, his height, and his manner. He is a great sportsman, particularly in hunting. He also is very energetic as he gets up early to peddle milk. Bucky is also active in the DeMolay. Football 2.

James Vincent Patrick Carnivale

Habits form character and character is destiny.

James is a cheerful little classmate, who exhibited exceptional skill in basketball. This athletic skill is not limited to basketball only but extends to other sports as well. The principles he has learned from his hobby of airplane modeling should prove an asset in his endeavor to become a pilot in the United States Air Force. Basketball 4.

Doris Louise Bowen

She studies music, we have learned.

Doris is talented in many arts. Her interest must lie in the finer things of life, for not only has she shown her ability in art, but in music as well. Her hobby is handicrafts and drawing, and she was a member of the Art Club in her sophomore year. She is a fine pianist and has often delighted the Dramatic Club with her playing. She plans to continue her studies in music after graduation. Art Club 2, Orchestra 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Reathel Marguerite Briggs

For a light heart lives long.

Tall, dark, and glamorous, Ray has captured the heart of many a lad. But only one remained and sadly enough he is now at college. Ray passes the dull moments away by learning the latest songs and keeping sport write-ups. She is a lovely dancing partner. She is interested in advertising. Basketball 2, 4, Hockey 3, 4.

Loretta Dorothy Brooks

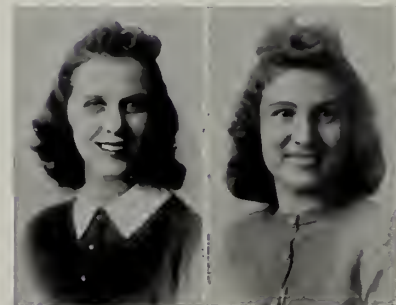

Merrily, merrily shall I live.

Loretta has the desirable combination of a fair complexion, brown wavy hair, and a sunny disposition. We can usually see Loretta hurrying to and from Crocker Field, for she is Mr. Stevenson's capable secretary. Her chief occupation is shooting people—with a camera, of course. This young lady's future plans include becoming a private secretary to a criminal lawyer, where she will see that justice is done. Volleyball 2, Basketball, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, French Club 3.

Olympia Lee Buratti

*Deep hair, dark eyes—not too dark
To be deep, and full of feeling.*

Lee is the great sport of the senior class for she is a very active and attractive athlete in basketball, hockey, and volleyball. Lee is planning to become either a telephone operator or a dress designer. Besides playing the piano she likes to collect pictures of movie stars. Volleyball, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Hockey 2, 4, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

BOULDER

*Best in Everything
Spell.* 1940

Frederick George Carpenter

The wisest man is he who thinks himself the least so.
Freddie was a happy-go-lucky member of our class but he always had time to study. Freddie is full of joy and sarcasm which is all in fun. He is also generous and good natured with a smile for everyone. Football, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Track, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Pep Club, Councillor 4.

Richard Edward Chambers

A man should endeavor to be pleasant as a reed, yet as hard as a cedar-wood.

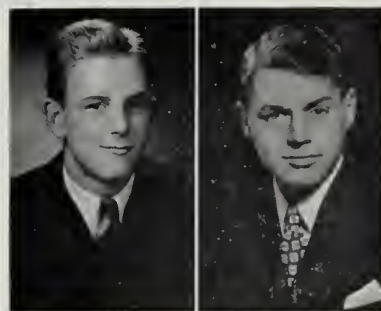

Richard, one of the red-headed members of the senior class, can usually be seen hurrying along the corridors, going nowhere in particular. During his spare time he works in the stock room of a department store. For his future work, Richard plans to become a printer or a musician. Football 3.

Frederick Alget Charbonneau

Politeness is to goodness what words are to thoughts.
From Westminster comes Fred, a quiet, introspective lad, whose words are few but carefully chosen. His future work lies in either the field of public speaking or writing. Dramatic Club 2, 4, Debating Club 4.

Oscar Theodore Charron

Responsibility educates.
Oscar's four big weaknesses are: hunting, fishing, clothes, and women. If he isn't working in his father's garage, he is sure to be hunting or fishing, but if by some chance he isn't doing either of these, he is courting. As for clothes, Oscar is well dressed anytime and is noted for his flashy shoes. French Club 3.

Good Luck to Veterans

Jean Paterson Burton

Earnestness is the soul of work.
Jean is a valuable member of the Red and Gray Board. She welcomes opportunities for hiking or bicycling. She also uses the needle well, and has prepared herself in the belief that "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." Jean is an active member of the Girls' Friendly Society. Her future plans include studying dietetics at Framingham State Teachers' College. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Red and Gray Board 3, 4, Round Table, Marshal 4.

Madeline Margaret Lena Capone

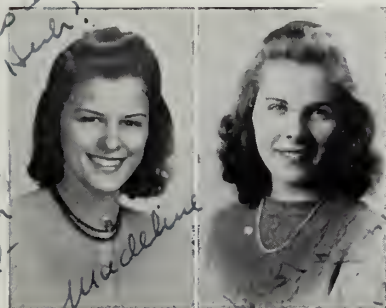

A merry maid is she!
Maddy takes advantage of all the pleasures school affords, yet she does not neglect her studies. She lends support to all branches of athletics. Her major interest is singing, and she has given great pleasure to the class of '40. Her melodious voice is guaranteed to chase away all the shadows of gloom from her path in life. Hockey, Volleyball 2, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Pep Club 4.

Theresa Mary Cardone

A quiet visage covers a multitude of things.
Theresa is another of our brunette attractions with sparkling eyes and much pep. Her frequent giggles offer happy moments to herself and to those about her. Her chief interest is in social life. In fact, her interest is so great that she has made a hobby of asking questions and learning what to think, what to say, or what to do in dealing with social living. After graduation, Theresa plans to train herself for hairdressing.

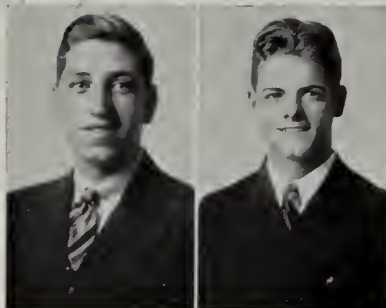

Marjorie Ann Casassa

*High flights she had and wit as well
And so her tongue was never still.*
Midge is a person one would call calm, cool, and collected, for no matter what the trouble, Midge always keeps her wits about her. Her sunny disposition may be due to her study of poetry. She needs to look at a poem but once and then knows it for all time. Her future ambition lies within the walls of a hospital where she will help cure the ill. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Class Prophecy 4.

Antonio Joseph Chirco

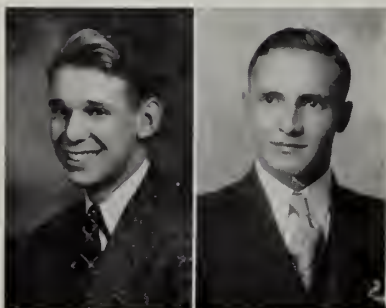

Knowledge is power.

Tony appears to be very quiet and reserved while in school, but we wonder about him after school hours! He is very much interested in golf, and even caddies in his spare time. Tony's great ambition is to become a golf pro, and we say, "More power to you, Tony."

Richard Oliver Collette

Exercise is the vital principle of health.

Dick is a carefree member of our class, who never seems worried. He is an ardent collector of stamps and is also interested in photography. Dick's real ambition in life is to become a mining engineer. In the past summer vacations he has been a caddy at the Oak Hill Country Club. Dick is one of our best runners. He proved this in track activities and the '39 relay races. Track 2, 3, 4, Relay Team 3, Council Chairman, Hand Book Committee, Senior Class Party 4.

Paul Uberty Congdon

Wit and humor belong to genius alone.

Paul is like an electric current for he is a regular live wire, and a gay young spark who is sometimes shocking. He is the president of the Pep Club. Paulie excelled in squad B football his junior year and basketball all three years. He is a real rooter for F. H. S., who doesn't let anything interfere with his studying. With his athletic ability Paul should make a good physical training teacher. Football 2, 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Junior Prom 3, Dramatic Club, Pep Club, Councillor, Basketball 4.

Harry William Cook

Happiness is not the end of life; character is.

Though Cookie isn't quite six feet four he makes up for it in personality. He is one of those who have a gift of gab. Harry is known for smooth ice skating. Cookie plays shortstop on the baseball team. As another specialty he works in Brockleman's. Track 2, Baseball 3.

Rosina Florence Cascio

A friend of the human race.

Rosina has plenty to do beside homework for she is very athletic and plays basketball, volleyball, and field hockey. Her hobbies are dancing and social work. She also is in the Girl Scouts. Rosina intends to be a nurse. Hockey 2, 3, Volleyball 2, 3, 4, Basketball, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Pauline Cecile Charron

Mischief is thy middle name.

Small, carefree, and full-of-fun describes Pauline. Her wit is well-known to her associates. She plays basketball well and is a good student. In the hallways, Pauline is often seen overloaded with school books! She is a drum-major with the St. Joseph Bugle and Drum Corps. Dramatic Club 2, 3, Volleyball, Hockey 2, 4, Basketball, French Club 3, 4.

Geraldine Rhinehart Christian

I work or play, as I think best.

Guy Rudolph Corbosiero

Wit is the flower of imagination.

Guy can usually be found bustling around the school, snapping pictures left and right with his trusty Argus. He is the most candid of candid camera fans and his pictures show that he is no amateur in the art of developing and printing films. His fame as a debater is well known and he is often seen preparing for his next battle of wits and words. He is looking forward to a career in the field of medicine. Dramatic Club, Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Open Meeting 3, Band 3, 4, German Club, Senior Class Play 4.

Lawrence Arthur Cravedi

He attains whatever he attempts.

One of the more talkative members of our class, Lawrence always has a ready smile and an argument. Outside of school he works in his father's market, and can often be seen riding through town on a delivery truck. After graduation he plans to continue working in the market and hopes someday to own his own store. Football 2, 3, Glee Club 4.

John Lenice Cushing

The contented man is never poor.

John, who came to Fitchburg High from Braintree where he was on the gymnastic team, is an ardent builder of model airplanes. His hobby, however, taken up after his day's work is finished, is working as a gas station attendant for the Fitchburg Ice Company. In addition to this he often goes hunting, fishing, and trapping. Gym Team, Track 2, Relay 3.

Kenneth Paul Darcy

Simplicity of character is the natural result of proud thought.

Not very much is heard from Kenny around school, even though he is one of the handsomest boys in our class. His brown wavy hair is a great asset to his appearance. Kenny is frequently seen at dances both in school and out.

Phyllis Margarite Cleveland

The old-fashioned girl is best.

Phyllis is an interesting person to know. Her pleasant manner, low tone of voice, and winning smile contribute to her personality. She is a good steamstress and makes many of her nice clothes. Phyllis collects all kinds of pictures. She intends to be a bookkeeper. Volleyball 3, Dramatic 4.

Helen Jane Cohen

As merry as the day is long.

Helen is one of our attractive brunettes. She specializes in dramatics, and intends to make this her life's work. As a pastime, Helen collects comical photos. Helen is an active member of the Young People's Hebrew Association. Helen plans to continue her education, but is undecided which college she will attend. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Reception 3, French Club 4, Senior Class Play 4.

Josephine Ann Contessa

Be silent and safe; silence never betrays you.

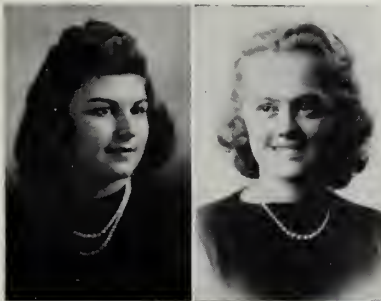

Jo is one of our best part-timers. She has no great ambition, but hopes to be a private secretary. Although Jo is taller than the average girl in our class, you do not seem to notice her height, but you can't possibly help noticing her big brown eyes! Volleyball 2, 3, 4.

Gladys Lillian Cooke

Her singing, and her merry glee

The mocking bird echoed from his tree.

Cookie, being full of appealing friendliness, is one of the best natured lassies of our class. We shall always remember her as the golden voiced girl of the class of '40, who never failed to captivate her listening audience. Besides excelling vocally, she excels also in dancing, basketball, and was once a pingpong champ. Cookie's voice would carry her far, but her plans for the future are domestic. Best Wishes "Ernie"

Francis William Delea

Fortune favors the bold.

Francis is a member of the Fitchburg Sportsmans' Club, who enjoys hunting and fishing in neighboring localities. He hopes to serve Uncle Sam as a clerk in the Post Office; perhaps his hobby of stamp collecting has interested him in this field of work.

Robert Ernest DeLorme

Silence is one great art of conversation.

Robert is a quiet young fellow, who, though silent most of the time, always has a ready smile and a friendly greeting for those who know him. During the afternoon Robert works for a beverage company, making soda. For his future work he intends to study accounting.

Ernest Michael DiGeronimo

A well-bred man is always sociable and complaisant.

Ernie is that rare type of person who can, at the same time, be a good athlete and a high honor student. His recitations warm the cockles of his teachers' hearts, especially in math in which he shines. Nevertheless when he is playing football he is 150 pounds of dynamite in the shape of a fighting full back. Outside of school hours he is employed at DiNinno's Market. He hopes to go to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. Football 2, 4, Ring Committee 3, Basketball, Write-up Committee 4.

Frederick John DiLucci

It is in learning music that many youthful hearts learn to love.

Fred, the Rubinoff of the senior class, is a prominent member of the orchestra. A true lover of music he hopes to continue his study of the violin in the Boston Conservatory of Music. Besides playing the violin, Fred is active on the athletic field. He played intramural basketball and was on the relay team. Basketball 2, 3, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Track, Relay Team 3.

Lillian Mary Cormier

*I do the things I like to do,
And leave undone the things I don't.*

Lillian is a short, blond, blue-eyed girl in the commercial group. Formerly, Lillian was a movie fan but lately her interest in movies has declined. It is believed that Cupid has finally reached her heart and she may soon take up domestic life. Hockey 2, French Club 2, 3, Reader's Guild 3.

Pauline Emma Cote

Work is only well done when it's done with a will.

Pauline is a cute little brunette, who comes all the way from Ashburnham to attend our school. One of Pauline's favorite sports is dancing. She is a member of a social club and the choir of her church. Pauline's ambition is to become a hairdresser.

Lucille Onda Cournoyer

An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow.

You will remember Lucille by her grand smile and her red hair. You may also remember her through the French Club or the Girl Scouts for she is active in both. Lucille has a collection of toy Scotty dogs. Her ambition is to be a nurse. Hockey 2, 3, Dramatic Club, French Club 2, 3, 4.

Dorothy Beatrice Crockford

Light of step and heart was she.

Dorothy is one of the smallest girls of our class, but very active for her size. She is well-liked by both sexes. There is only one fault with Dot; she prefers dancing to books, but ranks high in both. There are no dull moments in life for this young lass. Councillor, Dramatic Club 2, Basketball 3, Debating Club 2, 3, 4.

Best Wishes Dorothy

Henry Anthony DiTemmaso

Character is the governing element of life and is above genius.

Hank is tall and humorous. He was a member of the football team, and his number fourteen became the pride of the squad. Always full of fun, he is a good friend to have. Hank plans to enter Northeastern University after he graduates. Football 2, 3, 4.

John Kenneth Dupress

The pen is the tongue of the mind.

John has built himself quite a reputation by winning several prize essays. He has a marvelous faculty for remembering facts and a cunning logic which he exercises in argumentation, as members of Mr. Dillon's history class have found out. He is interested in science, and has read a good deal about radio, electricity, and the photo-electric cell. Red and Gray 3, 4, Round Table 4.

Roderic Alfred Durling

Cheerfulness is the sign of wisdom.

Rod is one of those persons who make themselves felt rather than heard. He sings second tenor in the Glee Club. Although we realize he is no Nelson Eddy he has an interest in music and a talented voice. His hobbies are many but among them he numbers hunting, fishing, and aviation as foremost. Glee Club 3, 4.

Durward Wells Eastman

Jesters do often prove prophets.

"A mighty hunter he!" Durward, according to all reports, is a regular Nimrod, who during the hunting season can be seen almost any day roaming the forests in pursuit of his favorite sport. The stories which he relates of his prowess as a huntsman help relieve the monotony of the school day, for the least of them is sufficient to liven the dulllest moment. Baseball, Basketball 2, Tennis 2, 3, Dramatic Club 2, 4, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Science Club 3, Band 3, 4, French Club 4.

Jean Marie Crossland

*My tongue within my lips I rein,
For one who talks much must talk in vain.*

Jean is one of those girls you often see but seldom hear. Although she is quiet, she takes part in various outside activities. Jean has a friendly nature and spends much of her time taking care of those who are much younger than herself. She is also an active member of the Christian Endeavor Society. Her hobby is making collections of miniature articles. Business school will probably beckon Jean after graduation.

Irene Flora DeLisle

Mine is a lofty ambition as wide as the world I covet.

Josephine Ethel Dellagono

A smile that glows with friendship.

When Parke Snow needs a spare girl, Jo serves as a pleasant sales clerk. Jo belongs to St. Anthony's Dramatic Club. Dramatic Club 3.

Anna Der-Minasian

These are the days of our youth, our days of glory and honor.

Anna is the dark curly-haired girl you see flitting around the corridors. All the girls envy her lovely naturally curly hair. Anna is also another one of the many girls in our class whose ambition is to design clothes. This is not surprising because Anna's hobby is sewing.

Robert Sherman Eccleston

Smiles are of love the food.

Robert or Eccie, as he is commonly known, is one of those lucky persons who are never without a witty remark. A good mechanic, he can construct anything from model airplane to boats. His latest endeavor is an automobile. He also helps to support our local dance halls not only as a dancer but as a hot trumpet in an orchestra. Eccie also is a Golden Eagle Scout. Band, Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Robert William Elkas

Levity of behavior is the bane of all that is good and virtuous.

A busy boy, Bob has taken the college course with the intention of entering a College of Pharmacy. If he works as hard at pharmacy as he does at his studies and outside activities, there is no reason why he should not be successful. Bob is a he-man too. He helped beat the class of '39 in the relay. Red and Gray Board, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Relay, Latin Club 3, French Club, Round Table 4.

Frank Robert Erickson

The great end of life is not knowledge but action.

Iggie as he is better known, is one of the O. Henry boys. He is a valuable pitcher on our baseball team and probably will be a major leaguer. The students who know him well realize what a joy it is to be in his presence and hear his pungent puns. Iggie is the sort of person who plays when he plays, works when he works, and thinks all the time. Baseball 3.

Philip Albanie Flanagan

Humor is often mingled with sensibility.

Phil is one of the school's best jokers, filled to the brim with merriment, laughter, and witty remarks. His shaggy locks reveal his fun-loving, carefree nature which everyone appreciates. Our class is proud of the gridiron spirit that Phil displayed. Football 2, 3, Dramatic 3, 4, Junior Prom 3.

Catherine Femino

Trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle.

Catherine is one of the smaller members of our class. She has a smile for everyone due perhaps to the fine set of teeth which she possesses. She does not excel in sports, but enjoys watching them. Her aim after graduation is to do stenographic work.

Charlotte Thomasine Flynn

Her smiling lips betray a heart of gold.

Charlie is one of the best liked girls in our class. Her radiant grin, her cheerful greeting, and her readiness to help, to defend, or to fight for her friends have been her chief characteristics. She was our cheerleader in our sophomore year. Charlie may be seen, afternoons, cruising around in her mother's Plymouth. Charlie's enthusiasm has greatly influenced many school activities. Cheerleader, Hockey, Volleyball 2, Basketball 2, 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Junior and Senior Reception 3, Pep Club, French Club, Write-ups, Class Play 4.

Donald Woodruff Fletcher

Knowledge is the treasure of a wise man.

Don is the young man you see going down the corridors wearing bright plaid hunting shirts. This seems proper because Don is quite a hunter and is good enough to be a member of the Fitchburg Rod and Gun Club. He seems to want to follow in his Dad's footsteps, because his one ambition is to be a contractor. Councillor 2, Class Colors 3.

Edward Gerard Flood

An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest.

Edward's posture is unequalled in F.H.S. If this has anything to do with character it shows that he is confident and can look the world in the face. When he isn't doing his regular home work he studies chemistry which he hopes to take up as his life work. Councillor 3.

Alfred Paul Forest

It is better to be always prepared than to suffer once.

Al has an unusual and interesting hobby, that of bird-raising and has had many interesting experiences with birds and their habits. He is a Junior Assistant Scoutmaster and is quite proficient in the art of scouting.

David Louis Forest

Silence brings friendship.

Dave enjoys the distinction of being the possessor of a wave which, according to all appearances, is actually permanent. Naturally he is envied by all the girls, and not a few of the boys. Dave has a hobby, that of making flying model airplanes in his spare time. He is a member of the track team, and belongs to the ultra-exclusive Hi-Hatters. Track 3.

*Best of Luck

Dorothy Cogswell Gage

I have a heart with room for every joy.

Dorothy is Westminster's contribution to the singing world. She displays her talent in the Girls' Glee Club and in many organizations in Westminster. Go to church some Sunday morning up in the wilderness and hear for yourself.

Elpenke Gamvas

Art is the music of the soul.

Elpie is one of Miss Nason's art enthusiasts. She is the possessor of a pleasing personality and a vivacity, which have won her many friendships. She plans to become an art teacher. Judging by her past record Elpie is well on the road to success.

Theresa Frances Gerante

Sow a thought and reap an act.

Terry is a dark-haired girl with a very sweet voice. She entertains many friends with her singing. Terry also owns hands capable of designing and sewing. Her future plans are to open a dress shop and become a designer and dressmaker.

Sophie Margaret Giunta

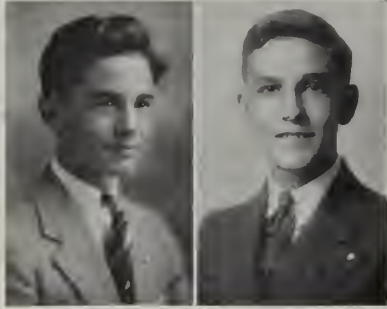

My own thoughts are my companions.

Sophie may be small in stature, but she has personality. She is an earnest worker, dependable, and capable. After school hours, Sophie is kept busy working at Giadone's Gasoline Station as a bookkeeper. Her chief interests are outside of school hours; therefore, she doesn't participate in many school functions. After graduation Sophie plans to continue bookkeeping.

*Best of Luck

Gerald Rodolphe Forest

A kind heart is a fountain of gladness.

Gerald is an amateur photographer and a collector of old coins. He is a basketball player, too. He belonged to the Debating Club for three years. No wonder he talks so well! This is really excellent training for him, too, for he plans to study law. He seems to be quiet but he really is very nice. Intramural Basketball 2, 3, Debating Club, French Club 2, 3, 4, Councillor, Dramatic Club, Prize Speaking 4.

Vernon Richard Foss

He is truly happy who makes others happy.

To be an artist is Vernon's ambition. His artistic work at present consists of etching in silver and copper, but later on he may branch out into other fields of art. However, don't exclude him from music, for his training in the high school band and in a church choir have brought out his varied musical abilities. Band 2, 3, 4, Orchestra 4.

Arthur Louis Gagnon, Jr.

The eye is the pulse of the soul.

Arthur is one of the quietest boys in our class although he has a grand sense of humor. He is very adept at writing poetry. We imagine he would be a better poet than an accountant, which is his one ambition, because of the excellence of his recently written poetry. Ask Arthur to tell you about the poem he wrote entitled, "Eyes." Debating Club 2, 3, 4.

George Frederick Gay

Learning is the eye of the mind.

Jake is another one of those seniors, who, although unassuming, manage to do a great deal. He is quite an expert in making model airplanes. He is a member of the Whalom Roller Skating Club. In the summer he works at Marshall's Farm among the apple trees and has had many exciting times there. Following graduation he wishes to become an airplane mechanic.

Dorothy Ann Grainger

Live to love and laugh.

Dot has the type of eyes that seems to entrance you, and they have already cast a spell over one member of our class. Athletics interest her and she has been an enthusiastic participant in many sports. Dot has made plans to take a course in hairdressing after she leaves high school. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club, Volleyball 3, 4.

Frances Louise Gray

*Corridors were made to walk in,
Not for little girls to talk in.*

Frances is a very quiet young lady who possesses a grand personality. She has a unique hobby, collecting phone numbers. Maybe Frances could help some of the boys by supplying them with numbers. We hear ballroom dancing is also one of Frances' pastimes. Glee Club, French Club, 2, Hockey 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Claire Janet Grenier

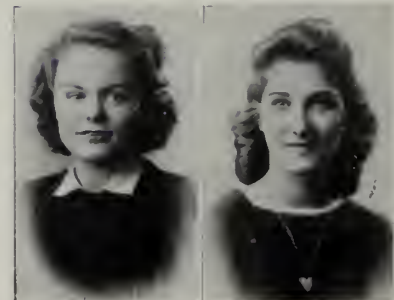

Be merry if you are wise.

Claire is always cheerful and prepared to fall in line and cooperate. She is one of our redheaded seniors and can always be found in the company of Blanche Begnoche. Claire is one of our high honor pupils and has showed her commercial ability by being chosen to work as a part-timer for Mr. Howard at the school bank. Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, Hockey 3.

Blanche Virginia Griffin

Little said is soonest mended.

Blanche is interested in many things. For sports, she prefers basketball and volleyball. She has a sweet voice and belongs to the Glee Club. Her hobby, collecting spoons, seems interesting. She is also interested in nursing. Blanche is very pleasant, and has the funniest little giggle that you can imagine. Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, Dramatic Club, Glee Club 4.

Peter Giammalvo

The greatest learning is to be seen in the greatest plainness.

Pete should be well known, to all who like to bowl, as he can usually be found at the other end of a bowling alley, working as pin boy. Although he is mostly associated with an indoor sport, his real joy is hunting and fishing. Because of this Pete hopes to become a Forest Ranger or a Guide. Track, Relay 3, 4.

David Crawford Glen

Skill and confidence are an unconquered army.

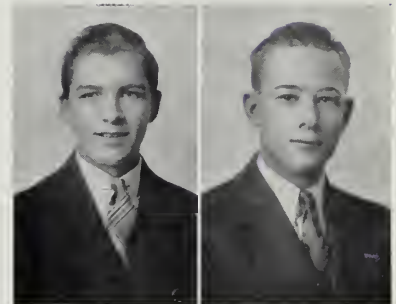

Glenny is one of our cheeriest seniors. His infectious grin is a common sight, while passing through the corridors. Glenny is worth a bit of his weight in gold for, in the sophistication of his junior year, he swallowed a few goldfish. He tells us that he would like to excel as a teacher and he plans to attend the Fitchburg State Teachers' College. Radio Club 2.

*lots of luck
"Dave"*

Henry John Godek

Use pastime so as not to lose time.

Piffy, as his ruddy cheeks show, is a happy person who likes the out-of-doors. He has changed from a sober youth to a frivolous person who is now the life of the party. Piff has won many friends by his amiable personality and good nature. He hasn't taken life seriously, as yet, but we have much faith in his future. Assistant Manager of Football 3, Manager of Football, Dramatic Club 4.

Robert Powers Gooding

Opportunity is the cream of time.

Bob is rather a quiet fellow. Bob's outside activity is a very interesting one and of real value for he spends his leisure hours running an amateur radio station. He belongs to a radio organization. For the future Bob wishes to be either a radio operator or a molder.

Anna Rachel Guglielmi

Cheerfulness and good-will make labor light.

Anna is a part-timer in the school office. She makes a good office girl because she has the carriage of a queen and a very pleasant smile. Outside of school Anna plays a violin in a dance orchestra. After graduation she intends to form an all-girl dance band. Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Debating Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Open Debate 4.

Betty Evelyn Hancock

Wearing her wisdom lightly.

Betty is a delightful young lady with the dignity proper to a senior. She has a very interesting hobby, designing clothes. She wants, however, to go to a hairdressing school. She has a pleasing smile and many friends. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Henna Rose Harju

The silent countenance often speaks.

One does not often see a girl as typical of her nationality as Henna is, with her blond hair and clear complexion. All her characteristics are proof of her Finnish descent. Her marks indicate that free-hand drawing is her most outstanding subject, and it is no wonder for drawing is her hobby. After graduation Henna plans to take up secretarial work.

Priscilla Irene Hauler

What sweet delight a quiet life affords.

Priscilla's quiet manner is apt to make people think that she is very serious. She is nice to know and has won friends by her cheery smile. Priscilla is much interested in sewing and someday she may be a dressmaker.

*Best of luck

Leon Earl Grow

Cheerfulness is the principal ingredient in the composition of health.

Leon is a fellow who is always fooling with his teachers. Although he is always joking, he seems to find time to study and make the honor rolls. Leon is planning to enter some technical school to study either mechanical or chemical engineering. Although he is not an active athlete, he is greatly interested in sports. Relay Team 3.

Leo Patrick Hachey

Fortunate is he whom the dangers of others render cautious.

This is Leo. He's the tall, dark type that is always welcome and always a good sport. Speaking of sports, he is known hereabouts as a baseball player of no mean ability. He was also a mainstay on the Relay Team. Maybe he gets in condition from his jaunt, via Cleghorn, to school every morning.

Raymond Fredrick Hakkila

The countenance is the index of the mind.

Ray, that tall, blond fellow from Westminster, is considered bashful. This isn't so, judging from his progress in Gardner; however, at the present time he's concentrating his charms on a brown-eyed girl who lives near him. He hopes to be an aviator later in life which probably accounts for the fact that his mind is "in the clouds" most of the time. Dramatic Club 2.

Jefferson Alonso Hall

A thinking man is always striking out something new.

Jeff is a member of the Dramatic Club and aids its activities by serving on the stage crew. He is the member-at-large of the Hi-Y Club and president of the Rollstone Young Men's Class. His hobby is molding and modeling. His many projects in these lines should prove helpful in attaining his goal as an architectural engineer. Class Motto Committee 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Margaret May Haven

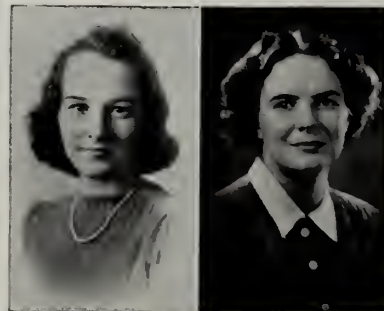

There's mischief in this maid.

Margaret is one of the pleasantest and most charming members of the senior class. She has plenty of pep and likes all sorts of sports, swimming, hiking, skating, and dancing, if that may be classified as a sport. She's very clever in knitting and sewing. Miggles, also, takes elocution lessons from Miss Quinlan. No wonder she has such a lovely voice! Dramatic 2, 3, 4, Class Colors 3, Write-up Committee 4, German Club 4.

Barbara Myles Hayton

Bernice Gladys Hilf

Wisdom is better than rubies.

Bernice is an efficient commercial student. Someday she will make a very capable accountant, for such is her desire. At present, she is working at State Teachers' College doing secretarial work. This has no harmful effect on her studies, for she still is a special honor student. Bernice finds postcard collecting an interesting diversion. Olavi Heimo HalttunenThe ink of the scholar is more sacred than the blood of the martyr.*

As Olavi is a marshal on the fourth floor corridor, he is quite a familiar figure to us all. He has a hobby quite different from anyone else's, which is the prognostication of the results of such contests as football, baseball, boxing, and track. Optometry is the field that interests Olavi as a life work. Junior Relay Team 3, Collector of Class Dues 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Class Prophecy, Assistant Councillor, Senior Class Play 4.

Bernard Peter Hart*True to his word, his work, and his friend.*

Bunny was known to all of us as a right guard par excellence. During the football tilts with our rivals his number, 18, could always be seen in the midst of the throng. Although he isn't large he has the tenacity and fighting spirit of a bull-dog and a never-say-die spirit. His favorite hobby is shooting and we can well believe that he does a good job of punching out the bullseyes. His ambition is to prepare himself to be a veterinary. Football 2, 3, 4, Relay 3, Round Table 4.

Donald Bernard HawthorneHe is merry as a cricket.*

Don is one of our noisiest seniors who believe in being heard as well as seen. We wouldn't call studying his favorite pastime. He is one good athlete whom we couldn't do without on the football field or indeed in baseball. His captivating smile and husky body make him a popular figure about the school. His gallant walk makes it easy for him to carry two or three cases of Taters. Football 2, 3, 4.

Robert Alexander Hay

A faithful friend is the true image of the deity.

Watch for a beachwagon full of boys and at night full of girls if you want to find Robert. His delight in moonlit nights — any night is okay, however — probably accounts for the fact that his home work is usually incomplete when he arrives at school, so in Spanish class he has to do his math and so on.

Raefteld Millard Hicks

Virtue is the path of praise.

Industrious is the word for Raefteld. When he was a small boy he collected newspapers, later he worked on a truck farm, and now he is helping his father construct buildings. This early training will aid him greatly when he becomes a man of the world for he should know how to work hard and efficiently. Band 2, 3, 4.

Robert Usher Holden

The more a man knows, the less he talks.

Bob's name has been one of the most frequent on the special honor roll. He was co-editor of the Red and Gray and took an active part in the French and Latin clubs, serving as Consul in the latter. He has a diversity of hobbies, including in his repertoire flower gardening, airplane modeling, collecting stamps and antiques. His fluency and ability to comprehend subjects should help him become a successful lawyer. Character makes one great in all conditions.

Ziggie as we all know him, has one pet aversion—Spanish. Although he conjugates verbs with unerring accuracy, when it comes to vocabulary and translation he seems to take a nosedive. During his spare time he may be seen industriously grubbing away in the good earth at Pierce's Greenhouse. His hobby is making model airplanes. After graduation he plans to be a truck-driver. Gym team 3.

Barbara Lorraine Jackson

She relishes a joke, and delights in a pun.

Barb is a very popular member of our class. Although she hails from the country, West Fitchburg, she is very active in school sports. She has helped her team many times to win a basketball game. Barbara's favorite subject is stenography. We do not know whether the teacher has anything to do with this or not. Councillor 2, Hockey, Basketball, Volleyball, Deck Tennis 2, 3, 4, Archery 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4, Thanksgiving Dance Committee 4.

Eila Ingrid Janhunen

Let your conscience be your guide.

Last year, Andy had a hard time defending the noted town of Westminster against the disparaging remarks of Mr. Dillon, but came through as successfully as his famous townsman, General Miles. In addition to this accomplishment, Andy ran a very good race in the Junior-Senior Relay and gave a fine exhibition of tennis in the fall tournament. Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 4, Motto Committee 3, Latin Club 3, 4.

Arthur Arne Hyvonen

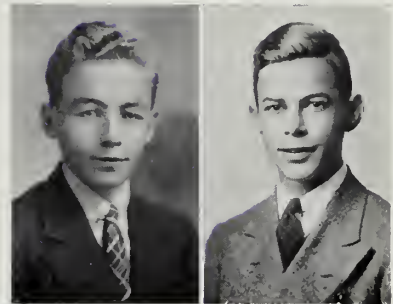

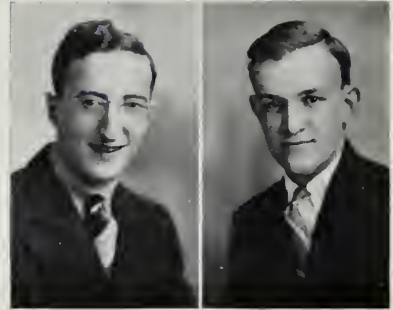

Opportunities are more powerful than conquerors.

Arthur may be considered a rabid candid camera fan, for photography is his hobby. During his high school days, he has mixed well by joining various clubs. Underneath his quiet appearance he has a fun-loving disposition, that is enjoyed by everyone. His ambition is to join the Navy. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Glee Club 4.

Donald Bruce Jeffery

A good countenance is a letter of recommendation.

Aviation has at least one ardent disciple in Fitchburg — Donald. In addition to constructing quantities of model planes, he follows the progress of aeronautics for its practical value, since he plans to take up some phase of this subject as his work. If he carries out this intention, the musical world may be the loser, for Don has been a member of both band and orchestra for the past three years. Band, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, French Club 2.

Nancy Elisabeth Johnson

*For the more a maid knows,
The more worthy she is.*

Nancy is the able and efficient secretary of the Dramatic Club. She has enjoyed the sunshine in her favorite state, Florida, many winters while we have shivered here in the north. Maila intends to live at the Y.W.C.A. in Boston, and to seek an office job, after graduation. Dramatic Club, Hockey, Orchestra 2, Basketball 2, 3, Junior Prom 3.

Donald Milford Johnson

He has Edison for his example, and if he works with the vigor and persistence of this great inventor, we are sure Donald will make a success of himself. Radio Club, Intramural Basketball 2.

Herbert Samuel Jones

A cheerful countenance betokens a good heart.

Wimpy, one of the Jones boys, has become a popular member of our class through his friendly smile and winning ways. When we hear a hearty laugh in the corridor, we know that Wimpy's around. His collegiate clothes and hair-clip give him distinction. He plans to further his education by entering college next fall. Junior-Senior Reception Play 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Robert Kendall Kenyon

A happy heart makes a blooming visage.

Bob is a quiet fellow who seems to have a flair for the finer things of life. Contrary to popular belief all seniors are not jitterbugs and here is one who proves that statement. His tastes run to drawing, poetry, and the collection of match covers, of which he has quite a number. He also plays a trumpet and is in the school band where he does his part at rallies and school functions. After graduation he hopes to organize an orchestra of his own. Basketball, Baseball 2.

Ellen Irene Kalinen

Quiet talk she liketh best.

Although a person of small stature, Ellen makes up for her size in other ways. She has played a dual role during her high school years. Not only has Ellen proved her worth by participating in sports, but she has also shown efficiency in her work at the library. Besides these extra activities, she finds time to do soap sculpturing as a hobby. Hockey 2, Basketball 2, 3, Volleyball 3.

Gloria Irene Kangas

O, this learning, what a thing it is!

As is usually true with blond-haired girls, Gloria excels in blushing. She is proving her commercial ability by working in the office of The Fitchburg Furniture Company, after school hours. Gloria is Miss Mattson's efficient assistant. She aims to develop her vocabulary, and for that reason, spends many hours attempting cross-word puzzles. After graduation, Gloria intends to continue office work.

Florence Fostine Kopsiaftis

Health and cheerfulness mutually beget each other.

This smiling young lady is very much sports-minded! During her high school years she has taken part in nearly all sport activities. Outside of school, dancing and swimming are her favorite hobbies. She is also very active in the Girl Scouts. Flo's great ambition is to become a nurse! Basketball 2, 3, Class Color Committee 3, French Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Daniel Koval

Those who labor with their minds rule.

Dan is one of our acknowledged leaders in scientific subjects; he is especially outstanding in chemistry, physics, and mathematics. But it is not to be thought that his only interest is in his studies, for Dan is an ardent photo fan and a member of the Hi-Y. We might also mention that he is active in school affairs, holding the responsible position of chief marshal. French Club 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Relay, Intramural Basketball, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Dramatic Club, Round Table, Write-up Committee 4.

William Waldemar Kumpu

Language most shows the man.

Norma Henry Lacas

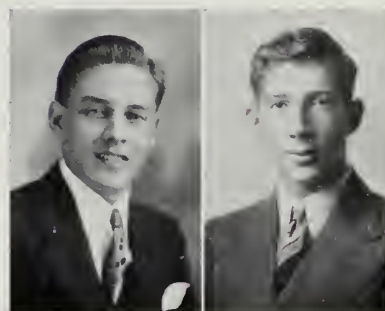

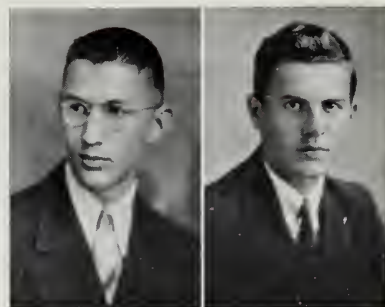

Happy is the man who doeth all the good he talks of.

Norman has been with us for a long time now and we've come to respect his quiet easy-going disposition. His interests are varied. His great ambition is to be a mechanic in a cotton factory.

Anita Dorothy LaFleur

The word impossible is not in my dictionary.

Anita is a girl with very pretty reddish brown hair who is full of vim and vigor. Above all other things, she likes to play the piano. In spite of her interest in the piano Anita would like to do clerical work for her livelihood. Hockey, Basketball 3.

Claire Simone Lalonde

*She can be as wise as we,
And wiser when she wishes.*

Class Banner 3, French Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Esther Mae Leavenworth

Exceeding pleasant to my eyes is she.

We have yet to see this lass when she is feeling moody. This would be quite impossible, for her disposition is always pleasant. Esther is a bright-eyed lass, with pretty hair, smooth skin, and plenty of pep. She is an active member of the Girl Scouts, and you can usually see Essie performing her daily good deed. Esther hopes to secure a secretarial position after graduation. Volleyball 3, Basketball 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Thanksgiving Dance Committee 4.

John, Di Lino, Good Luck, Di Lino.

Raymond Henry Lamothe

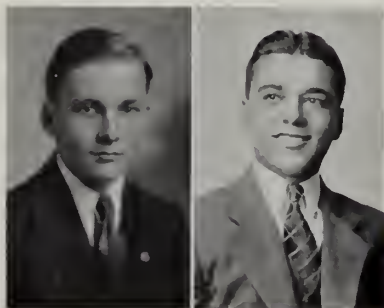

He who is silent gains a store.

Ray has the build of a true athlete. Besides that he has the cleverness without which no one can become great. These two qualities made him Fitchburg High School's star baseball pitcher and home run hitter. Ray, however, intends after graduation to use as an electrician the skill which he has acquired by his work with electrical devices. Football 2, 3.

Oskar Edward Lamsa

The learned man has always riches in himself.

Oskar belongs to the great army of stamp collectors. Perhaps his hobby was inspired by his work, for he is employed in the mailing office of the Raivaaja Press. He apparently feels, however, that his abilities lie in a direction other than that of publishing, for it is his ambition to be an engineer.

Salvatore Lauricella

The world is for him who has patience.

Sam is adventurous and athletic. He is greatly interested in sports and played regularly on the football team. Sam plans to take up boxing, wrestling, and swimming. Besides these sports he spends the quiet part of his life drawing pictures and cartoons. Sam also likes traveling. Football 2, 3, 4.

Evangeline Emma LeBlanc

In friendship, I early was taught to believe.

Evangeline is numbered among our happiest members. She is always ready for fun — the more adventurous the better. She loves to collect snapshots and novelty monkeys. She has already started on a business career for she works as a clerk at Grant's. Hockey 2, French Club 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Basketball, Volleyball 4.

Rita Mary LeBlanc

Always happy.

Although quiet and very serious in school, we hear from Rita's friends that as soon as two o'clock arrives she turns into a gay, talkative, young lady. Her favorite hobbies are skating and swimming. Rita is very conscientious about her studies, and because of this has attained excellent grades throughout her school years.

Gerene Mary Leger

A faithful friend.

Gerene, who comes from Clegghorn, is a petite demoiselle belonging to the commercial group. She is short and tiny, has dark wavy hair, and laughing eyes. She takes her lessons seriously but is always ready for fun. Although she has not participated very much in athletic events, she supports Fitchburg High faithfully. Her plans for the future are undecided. Her favorite pastime is reading fiction. Hockey 2, 3, French 3, 4.

Winifred Marie Leger

Her laugh is such a contagious thing.

Best of Luck!

Romeo Charles LeBlanc

Actions speak louder than words.

Any time you want to find Romeo, look for Joe Menard, for Romeo will be by his side. Besides being an expert dancer of the jitterbug type, and a member of the football squad, Romeo is also an expert marksman in the National Guards. Romeo cherishes the ambition, that every boy used to have, of becoming a locomotive engineer. Football 2, 3, 4, Junior Relay 3, French Club 3, 4.

William Joseph LeBlanc

Learning makes a man a fit companion for himself.

"Hold your cards, the winner may be wrong." That is Bill's cue for a night's work, for he works at the Veterans of Foreign Wars' Bingo party. He's proved himself an all around good fellow and is popular with the boys and incidentally the fairer sex too. His ambition is to be a mail carrier, so he may be ringing your bell some day.

Henry Bernard LeBouf

Read and you will know.

Henry has the courage of his convictions and doesn't hesitate to give his opinion about things that might affect him. Although he has his serious moments and smiles only to be polite, he does have a rather private sense of humor and displays it when it is least expected. The element of surprise is the backbone of his personality.

Jouko Oscar Lonnqvist

One accomplishes more by silence than by speech.

Jouko's constant good nature is always accompanied by a sly and knowing grin. This sandy-haired lad is nearly invincible at the game of Tit Tat Toe. Lately he has become a regular patron of one of Fitchburg's foremost studios of the dance. According to Jouko, Astaire had better watch his step. In spite of outward signs that he is not too serious, Jouko usually has his lessons done. Intramural Basketball 2, 3.

Lorraine Lynne Leonard

*Her thoughts are never memories,
But ever changing, ever new.*

Tony, as we know her, is the quiet and sophisticated type. She possesses a neat appearance in dress. She is a fine partner for dancing, as we have seen. Tony's plans for the future are quite interesting. She wishes to be a traveler and visit the mysterious and wonderful places of the world. If she tires of traveling, her next stop will be in the field of nursing. Dramatic Club 4.

Priscilla Ann Lufkin

Her dancing, graceful as a swallow's flight.

Peter is quite an unusual girl, for she dances unusually well, has an unusual hobby, and an unusual ambition. Her pastime is to collect quotations on philosophy. Her novel ambition is to become a religious dancer. That is, she intends to dance in church, if permitted. She also has talent in art and dramatics. She is vice-president of the Dramatic Club. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Art Club 3, Senior Class Play 4.

Marylouise McNally

'Tis well to see her cheeks with blushes dressed.

Marylouise skates and plays tennis very well. Her ambition is to be a costume designer and illustrator. Hockey, French Club 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Class Dues 3, Red and Gray 3, 4, Art Club 3.

Anna Macchio

No one but she and Heaven know of what she is thinking.

Anna is one of those quiet, unassuming girls who seldom think about themselves but often about others. She has a three-fold hobby for she not only collects all kinds of interesting books but souvenirs and postcards as well. Her participation in school sports has been limited mostly to hockey but her interest in sports as a spectator is probably limitless. Anna is very efficient and plans to go into business as a life's work. Hockey 2, 3.

Leo Joseph Lord

He that knows himself knows others.

Leo is another one of those few fortunate ones who go to school every other week, for he is a part-time student, and works at the School Board office for Superintendent Francis. Leo has taken three years of bookkeeping and, after graduation, will try to secure a position as a bookkeeper. His hobby is stamp collecting.

Norman Belding Lyons

An honest man is the noblest work of God.

How a hobby may develop into a life's work is shown in the case of Norman. Beginning the study of radio merely from a standpoint of pleasure, he has become something of an expert in this line, which he now intends to make his vocation. Norman's interests are not confined, however, to purely technical subjects, for he is an active member of the Scouts. Radio Club 2, 3, 4.

Charles Henry McCarthy

He that labors and thrives spins gold.

Charlie is a rather small person but you can always distinguish his fire-red hair anywhere. He had charge of the publicity for the Thanksgiving Dance. The only activity that Charlie indulges in is stamp-collecting. He is a part-timer and works at the office of the Superintendent of Schools. Thanksgiving Dance 4.

John Patrick McDermott, III

Strong reasons make strong actions.

A quiet senior, John is usually found minding his own business, and yet at the same time being very obliging to all. During the afternoons he works as a clerk in Brockelman's market. John hopes to become a first class machinist.

"73" Norman Lyons. But of Jack Johnnie

Rita Mary Anna Maillet

There is no knowledge that is not power.

Rita is a brunette from West Fitchburg. Her smile has often brightened the day and her pleasing personality has won her a host of friends. Rita's favorite subject is bookkeeping and she intends to enter the business world as a bookkeeper. Basketball 4.

Aili Adele Maki

*Ever happy, earnest, bright,
A student following paths of right.*

Aili is good-natured and easy-to-get-along with. Her cheerful disposition is a great asset and has won her some very good friends. Oftentimes, her unexpected sarcasm astonishes everybody. Aili draws very well, is interested in sports, likes to sew. A great future in nursing lies in store for Aili. Basketball 2, 3, 4, Reader's Guild 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Junior to Junior Girls

Irene Elizabeth Maki

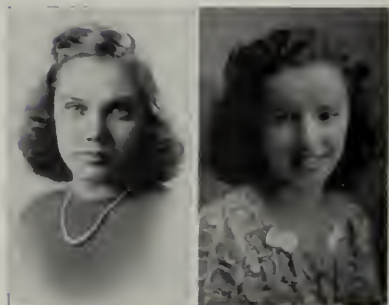

Her lively looks a sprightly mind disclose.

Honey is a live wire whom you can't help but notice when she passes. She is active in sports and excels in basketball. You will always see her trotting around with her pal Stevie. She is well known for her singing. Irene is a good talker and possibly that is why she was elected president of the Girls' Debating Club. Basketball, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Volleyball 3, Debating Club, Pep Club 4.

Barbara Inez Mansfield

*For that eye is so modestly beaming,
You never think of the mischief she's dreaming.*

Barbara is small, lively, and pretty. Her keen blue eyes and warm smile are among her external charms, but what shall we say of her many other qualities? She is ever active, never refusing to support all school activities. We are not certain of her future plans. Hockey 2, Basketball 2, 3, Reader's Guild, Class Banner 3.

Allan Robert Mandelin

Wisdom is the sunlight of the soul.

Allan has great ambitions for his future. He intends to go either to West Point or a technical school for mechanical engineering. Very frequently in the spring and the fall, Allan may be seen on a tennis court, playing a very good game of tennis. His hobby is collecting stamps.

Guerino James Mandozzi

The tongue slays more than the soul.

Guerino is a sports-minded person. His interests are baseball in the summer and basketball in the winter and he is very good in both sports. His future plans are undecided as yet. Intramural Baseball 2, 3, Intramural Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Charles Henry Manning

Dancing's a touchstone that true Beauty tries.

Where there is music Skids can surely be found, demonstrating the newest jitterbug step. We sometimes wonder whether he eats at all during recess, but probably he has already acquired the technique of doing two things at one time. Skids has also been interested in the Debating and Glee Clubs, besides being active in the St. Joseph Cadets. This machine age must have captivated his fancy, as Skids plans to be a machinist. Debating Club 2, 3. Glee Club 3, 4.

Ernest Mathieu

Preparation is half the battle and nothing is lost by being on one's guard.

One of the quieter members of the senior class, Ernest hails from Cleghorn, and speaks French like a Parisian. For a hobby he engages in music, and is quite talented, being able to play several different instruments. To realize how ambitious he is you have only to know that he intends to study medicine and become a doctor. Football 3, 4.

Ellen Charlotte Marden

*If you would be well served.
You must serve yourself.*

Here is a young lady of unquestionable merit and ability. Charlotte did not neglect any athletic activities and has proved her ability on the basketball floor. Although her work shows that she has pursued her studies faithfully, we have yet to see her when she was not ready for fun. Hockey 2, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Volleyball, Reader's Guild 3.

Audrey Dorothy Helen Marriott

Fine words never hurt the tongue.

Audrey is, as the saying goes, as busy as a bee. Not only has she been efficient at the lunch counter in school, but the Girl Scouts have also claimed much of her time. She is a junior lieutenant in one of our local troops, and her hobby must be the collecting of merit badges for she has a large number. The city of Washington interests her as she hopes to become a nursery maid there. Dramatic Club 4.

Charlotte Florence Martin

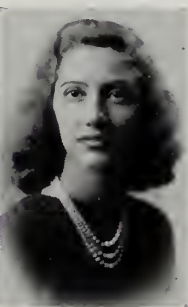

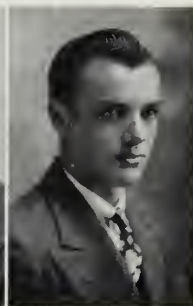

*If you command wisely.
Then you'll be obeyed cheerfully.*

Charlotte is one of the attractive members of our class. Her sparkling hair, her smiling eyes, and pretty lips are evidences of that. She is quiet and demure, yet full of good cheer. Clothes are of great interest to her, as is seen by the variety she wears. Charlotte likes all kinds of sports. Her chief ambition is to become a nurse. Hockey 2, Volleyball 2, 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Debating Club, Senior Prom 4.

Evelyn Mattis

As upright as the cedar.

There is an old saying that people who do things don't have to talk about it, and Evelyn must have taken this as her motto, for she is a petite miss of few words. She collects postcards. Evelyn wants to be a typist and she can surely tap the keys in a superior manner.

Clarence Edward May

Manners—the final and perfect flower of noble character.

El Shifto May loves to argue. His hobby is collecting baseball bats. Could it be that when his argumentation is not convincing, he uses his above mentioned hobby as a persuasive method? That he has a good amount of determination is proved by his four years of football. He also did well in basketball and baseball. Football, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Baseball 3, 4, Pep Club 4.

Walter Alfred Maynard

Mind is the great lover of all things.

Although he won't admit it, Walt is one of the South Side's most famous sons. He acts as one of the cogs in the machine that turns out the Fitchburg Sentinel. He looks reserved but, as his many belittling companions will assert, he is decidedly the opposite. Probably the thing that distinguishes him from most fellows and girls is that he doesn't pretend to be anything that he isn't.

Edmund Domenic Mele

The secret of success is consistency of purpose.

Ed hails from the wilds of South Ashburnham. He is an ardent fight fan, and has taken lessons in boxing. Basketball is his favorite sport from both a spectator's and a player's viewpoint. In his less active leisure moments, he devotes himself to stamp-collecting. He is quite definite as to plans for the future, having hopes that he may soon be the owner of a service station.

Anthony Membrino

Education makes the man.

Tony is one of those sports-minded fellows. He'd rather do his work, get out of school, and spend most of his remaining time in fishing, hunting, and bowling. He is best in playing basketball. Basketball 2, 3.

Elsie Elaine Mattson

Kindness is the sunshine in which virtue grows.

Elsie has worked faithfully during her four years of high school. She was always ready to render service on needed occasions and because of her courteous manner secured many friends. Her future plans are unknown to us.

Pauline Marie Mayer

You have a merry heart.

There is never a dull moment when Pauline is around as she always manages to find something entertaining to do or say. Her real hobbies are ice skating and taking pictures but just to keep out of mischief she swims, roller skates, hikes and dances. If writing notes is a hobby we'll add that too as she certainly spends plenty of time on that. Pauline is active in the French Club. Her ambition is to be a nurse. Hockey 2, French Club, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Priscilla Merriam

Wisdom is the conqueror of fortune.

Priscilla is co-chairman of the school notes division of the Red and Gray, a position in which she has shown exceptional ability in reporting school affairs. She is also a junior member of the Woman's Club. Priscilla's hobby is an unusual one—not collecting miniatures or stamps, or doing needlework, but collecting butterflies. She follows up her collecting with careful study, and has become an authority on this fascinating subject. Glee Club 2, French Club 2, 3, 4, Round Table, Secretary of French Club, Red and Gray 4.

Hilkka Irene Miinala

No simplest duty is forgot.

Hilkka has a smiling countenance and friendly nature—with just that charming spice of temper that makes her a delightful puzzle. Fiddling in the orchestra, playing basketball, and teaching Sunday School are only a few of the many activities in which she participates. She has a special interest in languages and in marks she ranks among the highest. Although Hilkka is attracted by the opposite sex, her affections are not centered on anyone. Joseph Albert Menard

Presence of mind and courage in distress are more than armies to procure success.

Joe, our popular football captain, is really a scientist at heart. He really does read Einstein so perhaps it is his knowledge of science that helped him as our crashing left tackle. Versatile Joe is as much at home on a dance floor as on the gridiron. He is going to Northwestern to take a mechanical engineering course. Ring Committee 3, Football, Track 3, 4.

Arthur Walter Miles

The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet.

Although he did not join us until our junior year, Arthur soon became a well-liked member of the class. He has that gift of fluent conversation which so many of us desire but cannot acquire. He enjoys outdoor sports, especially hunting and fishing. We do not know his intentions for the future.

Leonard Phelps Morey

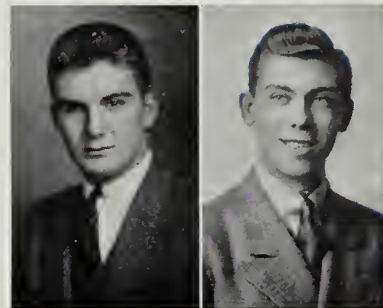

A civil habit oft covers a good man.

Len is the tall smooth-looking chap you see prancing along the corridors usually accompanied by some fair maiden. His hobby is collecting the latest records and gathering his closest friends for an evening of entertainment. Len tells us that he would like to be a salesman. No doubt he will have no trouble selling, especially to the ladies. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4. Senior Class Prophecy 4.

Raymond William Muhonen

His hair is of a golden color.

Our basketball star has a head of almost platinum blond hair that any girl would give a fortune to have. Except when on the basketball floor, Ray seldom emerges from the placid mood that even the job of collecting junior class dues could not make him forget. This calm, collected attitude gives Ray an air of dignity which many athletes discard. Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Junior Class Dues 3, Pep Club 4.

Best Wishes, "Whitey"

Shirley Edith Miller

With pearly teeth and raven hair.

Shirley's glossy black hair is the envy of many of our girls. We all wonder how she keeps it so nice. Shirley is often seen in the company of a tall, dark, and handsome fellow. Like many of the other girls she would like to get secretarial work after her school days are over. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Santina Anne Mitola

Be wisely worldly, but not worldly wise.

Santina is one of the smartest dressers in our class. We can readily understand that because her one ambition is to be a designer of clothes. Probably in 1950 we women will wish we could afford to go to Santina to have our clothes designed. Singing is Santina's hobby and she works in one of the most popular stores in town, Kresge's. Volleyball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3.

Marjorie Helen Murch

A joke a day keeps the blues away.

Marjorie's dark eyes are always flashing and smiling. Nothing ever disturbs her, and the girl you see walking down the corridor very slowly is, undoubtedly, Marge. She is also one of West Fitchburg's boosters. Marge hopes to be the foremost hair stylist of 1942.

Nancy Lowe Murphy

Her eyes are flooded with laughter.

Bella is the nick-name for Nancy, one of our best class wits. She is a wonderful mathematician. Four and four is always nine to Bella. You can always hear her melodious voice in the corridors singing one of the popular numbers of the day. Hockey 2, Vice-President of Art Club, Open Meeting Play 2, 3, Councillor 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Class Play 4.

Best wishes, remember to write "Len"

Best wishes, "Dorothy"

Tenho Nappari

An ounce of prudence is worth a pound of gold.

Tenho is a shining example of a student who knows how to study intelligently. His winning the biology prize in both his sophomore and junior years proves this. Maybe he gained his extensive scientific knowledge from his summer occupation of caring for an apple orchard. Councillor 2, Dramatic Club 4.

Walter Valfrid Niemi

No legacy is so rich as honesty.

Geester keeps the second floor corridor in a seething ferment with his merry humor. Walt throws himself wholeheartedly into every undertaking, and his usual state of perpetual motion, especially when driving, is amazing to behold. Robert Anthony O'Donnell

A faithful friend is the medicine of life.

James Otis

Men are polished through art and speech.

Jimmie is the quiet young fellow, with the freckled face, who does most of the photographic work for the school magazine. No matter what the situation may be, his face always remains a perfect blank, and many a teacher has been definitely surprised when James came through with the right answer to a particularly hard question. With these qualities plus his pleasing personality his future business life should be very successful. Class Color Committee 3, Red and Gray photographer 3, 4.

Beatrice Isobel Neal

Charms strike the sight, but merit wins the soul.

Chrystal's ambition is to join the legion of women in white as she plans to be a nurse. Reader's Guild 3.

Robert Allan Otto

To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved.

Bob is kept busy by his job at the Fennia Market as well as by bowling, Hi-Y, and tennis. Steady of heart and stout of hand.

Johnnie is a very good natured fellow, and has a friendly way with everybody. He is not known very much around school, but the people that know him appreciate his acquaintance. French Club 2, 3, Latin Club, Junior Prom Committee 3, Editor of Boulder 4.

Frank Joseph Parisi

A patient man's a pattern for a king.

Frankie is one of the spark plugs of the senior class. His pet passion is raising moustaches and this is something he takes quite seriously. After he has had one under cultivation for three weeks or so, the axe usually falls and he again becomes his own natural self. In the summer he caddies at the Oak Hill Country Club and last winter he was assistant manager of our basketball team. Assistant Manager of Basketball Team 3, Manager of Baseball Team, Glee Club 4.

Norman Edward Patch

The most manifest sign of wisdom is continued cheerfulness.

Raymond Russell Pera

Well-timed silence has more eloquence than speech.

Ray is one of the very few quiet boys in our class. But we know that under that quietness, there is a grand sense of humor. Ray's ambition is to become a farmer, although it seems to us that he is very far from that now because he works as a janitor at the Fitchburg Mutual Fire Insurance Company's building.

Harold Douglas Percival

Duty determines destiny.

Doug seems to most people a sulky fellow, but when we really know him he is just full of it. His rosy cheeks, blue eyes, and blond hair appeal to everyone. His hobby is quite a dangerous one, but he knows how to handle his guns though. He'd better!

Mary Alice Scanlon

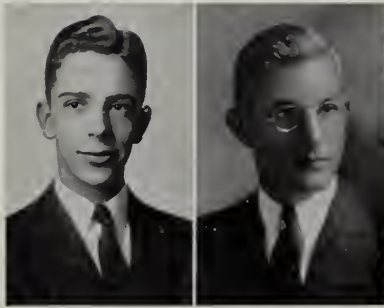

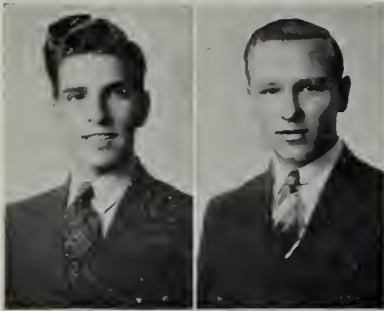

*Playful flushes that seem'd nought.
But luminous escapes of thought.*

When you remember Mary it probably won't be for her brilliance, though she is on the honor roll. It won't be for her athletic skill either as Mary doesn't go out for sports in an active way. But you will remember her for her personality, her good looks, and nice figure or her popularity and her enthusiasm for her athletic teams. Councillor 2, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Mary Georgina Stevenson

In her friendship there is nothing insincere.

Mary is a very quiet but also a very smart student. She seems to have a liking for Spanish and does very well in the subject. As a matter of fact she seldom pulls down anything less than an A. Her blue eyes are well known throughout the school and she is seldom seen without a cheery smile on her face. Her thoughts for the future are turned toward nursing. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Janet Ann Stimpson

In her tongue is the law of kindness.

Janet is very athletic. Her chief sport is basketball though she plays volleyball and field hockey nearly as well. Her hobby is doing handiwork. She is a member of the Girls' Friendly Society and works in the Public Library. Janet's ambition is to be a nurse. Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Eira Sinikka Sulin

A true friend and helper.

Curly is a jolly curly-haired girl. She has attained a high standing in our class as a good scholar and fine athlete. Her sunny disposition and rippling laughter are among her valuable assets. Curly's ability in commercial work makes it obvious that some office is going to employ an ideal secretary. Councillor, Dramatic Club 2, Hockey 2, 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Ring Committee, Volleyball 3, Write-up 4.

James Bernard Stanley

Education is an ornament in prosperity and a refuge in adversity.

Bunny, as he is called, displays a rare ability to remain uninfluenced by his environment by maintaining excellent deportment in gym class. He is the bright and shining star of his intramural basketball team. To judge by his manner of leading his team, one might venture to predict that he will be a politician.

Martin Timothy Sultan

The head is the dome of thought, the palace of the soul.

Mart is another of our blond lads and a great lover of sports. He is a good basketball player. Besides playing basketball, Mart spends much of his time dancing. From what we hear, he dances quite well. Mart has not as yet decided what he will do when he leaves school.

Raymond Wallace Syvari

Chance fights ever on the side of the prudent.

Ray is one of our blond musicians and he is a prominent member of both band and orchestra. Ray's hobbies are fishing and music. He also likes to tinker with different machines. Although he is not sure of his future plans, he is interested in a machinist's work. Ray also plays basketball for one of the intramural teams.

Norman Ernest Tarbox

Personality is to a man what fortune is to a flower.

One of the quieter members of our class, Norman is interested in the restaurant business and can usually be found, after school, working in the lunch room. For relaxation he collects coins and pitches horse shoes. Norman plans to study for the civil service in order to become a mail clerk.

Elizabeth Ann Tasis

It is her joy to work and to give to others.

Elizabeth is a well-dressed, cheerful member of our class often seen in 213. Curly hair, bright eyes, a friendly smile, and a pleasant manner are her most commendable assets. Elizabeth is a great sports fan and has participated in them with skill. She ranks high as a good scholar and, in the future, should make a place for herself with a business firm. Volleyball, Basketball 2, 3, Junior Banner 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Elizabeth Virginia Taylor

*She doeth little kindnesses,
Which many leave undone.*

It seems that Bette, who is one of our all around girl athletes, is always on some championship team. She, so tall and stately, just drops the ball into the basket and her team has gained two more points. Her hobby is collecting school posters. We all know that she is quite skillful with the needle and after graduation, Bette plans to attend Worcester Trade, to take up dress designing. Basketball 2, 3, 4, Volleyball, Pep Club, Dramatic Club, Write-up Committee 4.

Lorraine Theresa Thibodeau

Strong reasons make strong actions.

Lorraine, otherwise known as Tibby, belongs to the commercial group. She is short, has blond hair and blue eyes, and is friendly with everyone. Lorraine studies her lessons faithfully and has passed with fairly good marks. She enjoys collecting stamps and her favorite sport is basketball. After her schooling, she intends to become a nurse. Hockey 3, Basketball 3, 4.

Ann Ella Thrasher

Labor, like everything else that is good, is its own reward.

Ann is a tall brunette whose happy laughter fills our corridors between classes. Although not very active in school activities, she finds plenty of time for dancing, which it is said she does very well. It has been said that a good disposition goes a long way in the field of nursing. In that case Ann is sure to succeed. Basketball 3.

Wilho Isak Tommila

In his tongue is the law of kindness.

Wilho, sometimes known as Zom, is a tall, handsome young man. He is a member of both the band and orchestra. Outside of school Zom helps to repair our shoes at the City Shoe Repair. He is also a member of the Reipas Athletic Club. Intramural Basketball 2, 3, Band and Orchestra 3, 4.

Richard Stevens Tucker

Wit is the salt of conversation, not the food.

Meet the editor of The Senior Times and treasurer of the Dramatic Club. Dick is very much interested in dramatics, and has been a member of the club since his sophomore year. Not the least of his talents is that of acting as a master of ceremonies. He is also a member of the Hi-Y. Radio is the field which he has chosen for his life's work. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Debating Club, Junior Prom Committee 3, Boulder Joke Committee 4.

Eino John Tuomi

He's very knowing.

Eino is one of our most intelligent boys. He is a special honor student and also a part-timer for Mr. Hubbard and Miss Ranney. Besides collecting stamps, Eino's hobby is music. He is a very good accordionist, and has played on many different occasions at Finnish halls. Senior Class Prophecy 4.

Kenneth Thomas Turner

A faithful friend is a true image of the Deity.

Ken's lung power must be amazing because he surely can give out on that slush pump. Nobody knows how any one person can find so many old jokes but Ken does and, still worse, tells them. His smile, however, completely excuses him for all the suffering he has caused with his gay nineties' jokes. Intramural Basketball, Band 2, 3, 4.

*Best of luck
Wilho*

Best of luck!

*The very best
luck to a small fellow*

*Loads of Success
"Ken"*

Constance Dina Vourloumis

Mirth prolongeth life and causeth health.

Connie is a person who, because of her size, has to make a double effort to make herself seen and heard. Connie's hobby is collecting photographs. She does not take to sports, but is one of our well trained artists. After graduation, she plans to attend a school of art.

Margaret Jane Waite

Sober, steadfast, and demure.

Margaret is a quiet girl who is just a tiny bit shy. She is very nice to know, however. She must like dogs, for she collects figures of them as a hobby. Can you picture her as an efficient librarian for that's what she plans to do when her high school days are over? Reader's Guild, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Glee Club, Marshal 4.

Freda Lorraine Watkins

No one had ever asked her aid in vain.

Freda is one of those people who are not happy unless they are doing something. She has taken part in several school activities. She is interested in basketball and has provided much amusement for her team. She has also proved her ability in debating, as she was one of the speakers in the public debate last year. This achievement should be of great value to Freda as she is planning to become a teacher. Basketball 2, 3, Debating, Glee Club 3, 4, French Club 4.

Eunice Shepard Wellington

*She is pretty to walk with,
And witty to talk with,
And pleasant, too, to think on.*

Laughing eyes and a happy nature constitute the greater part of Eunice's character. Her friendly chatter plays an important role in group conversations, and her radiant smile is an inspiration to all her friends and acquaintances. Her nature has a serious side too, and she has made various plans for the future. Many girls of our class are planning to follow in the footsteps of Florence Nightingale, and Eunice expects to be one of them.

*Loads of luck
"Freda"*

Best Wishes
Dicks

Richard David Upham

His heart is true as steel.

Dick isn't absolutely certain as to his future occupation, but he rather favors the banking business, training in which he is receiving through his work in our own High School Bank. Outside of school hours, his interests are centered around his hobby—photography, and his activities as a member of the DeMolay, the Christian Youth Club, and the Scouts.

John Anthony Valera

The good man makes others good.

John is an industrious lad who helps Miss McIntyre in the cafeteria. His ambition is to be a singer with some orchestra and to make some song famous. His dark bright eyes and happy nature ought to go a long way in helping him attain his goal. Junior Prom Committee 3, Class Play 4.

William Frederick Valiton

He is an absolute gentleman.

Bill is reputed to be an expert gardener, but apparently this is but a side interest, for he plans to make architecture or general industrial designing his permanent vocation. Among his extra-curricular activities is his membership in the Sons of Veterans of Foreign Wars. Incidentally, Bill occupies the leisure hours with the science of numismatics—old coin collecting to you. Latin Club 3.

Jacob Van Hillo

A wise man will make more opportunities than he finds.

Jake is a nice person to have around. He has a good sense of humor and keeps it busy. He has a daily morning paper route which takes him over the South Side. His hobby is collecting coins. Jake's ambition is to be a draftsman. Relay substitute 3.

Go a grand musician
Keep it up please
Johnny!

Tuck "Jake"

Madelene Langdell Wheeler

*It was only a glad "Good morning,"
As she passed along the way,
But it spread the morning's glory
Over the livelong day.*

Madelene has taken as her own the philosophy that laughter lightens burdens and her cheery greetings are heard as regularly as the ringing of the school bell. Much of her time is spent in collecting old bottles, this being her hobby. She is also an interested and an active member of the Christian Youth Club. Madelene plans for the future to obtain work at the Morgan Memorial Nursery Camp in Boston. Basketball, Hockey 2, 3.

Priscilla Esther Whitney

A perfect pattern of prudence.

Priscilla is a very industrious young lady which will help her in her ambition, nursing. We wonder how she finds so much time for reading books. If any of you boys and girls would like to know what to read for a book report, just go to Priscilla who has read practically every book in the library. Reader's Guild 3.

Marion Elizabeth Willard

Actions speak louder than words.

Marion is one of the happy-go-lucky members of our class. She'll admit studying is not her chief interest and usual pastime, although she does well in all her subjects. She likes both indoor and outdoor sports, especially basketball and swimming. Her hobby is collecting pictures of her friends. For her life's work, Marion has chosen dress designing. Glee Club, Dramatic Club, Marshal 4.

Gloria Helen Wilson

*Forward and frolic glee was there
The will to do, the soul to dare.*

Snowball hails from way up on Rindge Road. She is a celebrated member of Miss Peabody's German family. She and Miss Haskins too have grown to be quite good friends as Snowball often stays around school until three, which even the best of us do occasionally. Gloria's by-word is "Have you got any extra money?" Her ambition is to be a nurse. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, German Club 4.

Best Wishes for success "Marion"

Best of everything!
"Snowball"

Walter Durward Vieweg

Courage conquers all things.

Walter comes from the back woods of Westminster. He lives on Bean Porridge Hill, which in winter is isolated sometimes for weeks at a time. However, his remoteness from civilization does not keep him from acquaintance with national and foreign affairs, for almost every day he debates some subject with a teacher. Dramatic Club 2.

Harry Vizigian

No one reaches a high position without boldness.

Harry attributes his great strength to the exercise he gets throwing bundles for the Fitchburg Sentinel. He is always jovial and easy to deal with. He admits that he takes his jokes from Ancient History texts but his unique way of telling them makes them funny anyway. He intends to become a printer. Junior Relay 3.

Warren Preston Wheeler

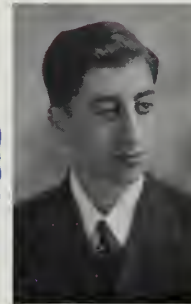

He has a heart with room for every joy.

Warren is a small, dark complexioned, rather good looking young man. He never seemed to have much to say but attended strictly to his own affairs. He had an outside interest in photography.

Henry Vito Wicha

Genius is mainly an affair of energy.

Henry managed to hold down a position on our football team and, although he saw little action in actual games, his persistence kept his team mates striving harder. He has had experience in handling cars and hopes to get employment as a truck driver. Football 2, 3, 4.

Ardath Woollacott

If you want learning, you must work for it.

Ardath appears to be serene and calm no matter what happens. Even tests in chemistry do not ruffle her. Her calmness will be of value to her when she becomes a nurse. She belongs to the Epworth League and is president of the Theta Girls. Possibly some day Ardath will be on a ranch for her hobby is the raising and care of horses. Hockey, Volleyball 2, Basketball 2, 3, Glee Club 2, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Mary Frances Worthley

*Reply with wit to gravity
And with gravity to wit.*

Not much was heard from Mary until her senior year when most of us were, at some time, reproved by her for talking. Mary was a marshal and she managed to keep as much order among the students as was possible. If she maintains this efficiency in nursing, patients can't help but recover. Should you ever desire home-cooking, you might bear in mind that Mary's hobby is baking. Marshal 4.

Victoria Yapchian

That which befits her is cheerfulness and courage.

Vicky is one of the tall members of our class, but as full of cheerfulness as she is high. She has a great sense of humor and plenty of mischief, but she does her work well. She hopes for a career in business. Basketball, Volleyball 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Leo Oscar Wiita

*One inch of joy surmounts of grief a span,
Because to laugh is proper to the man.*

Leo, a sarcastic but easygoing young gentleman, never seems to be in a hurry. One wonders how he catches the school bus early enough so that he will get to his job on time at the W. F. Whitney Company in South Ashburnham. He is fond of shooting and belongs to a Rod and Gun Club. He plans to enter some higher institution of learning but, as usual, is taking his time about choosing it.

*Best Wishes

Donald Beamont Woods

*He is a gentleman because his nature,
Is kind and affable to every creature.*

Don is president of the Dramatic Club and takes an active part in all its activities. He likes athletics, and played in the intramural basketball league and the fall tennis tournament besides helping his team win the relay. Don is a persistent student and hopes to enter the Coast Guard Academy. Junior Relay, Junior Prom Committee, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Class Play, Co-business manager of Boulder 4.

Robert Leslie Yates

Friends have all things in common.

Bob goes to school by day and to the movies by night, where he works as an usher at the Fitchburg Theater. He also travels around Fitchburg in his well known car working for the Crowell Publishing Company. He is lots of fun and well liked by everyone. Glee Club, Band 2, 3.

Ralph Ernest Young

Success, remember, is the reward of toil.

If you ever happen to roam the woods and streams of Westminster you may find Ralph somewhere along the trail, hunting or fishing with the skill of an expert. In addition to increasing his own knowledge of field and stream he finds time to impart some of it to Westminster youngsters by diligently attending to his duties as a Boy Scout leader. Dramatic Club 2, Band 3, 4.

Richard Wallace Zeigler

His attire is very neat.

Dick is a pleasant fellow and well liked. This lad is the secret object of many lassies' affections. Dick however is true to one. Music is his chief ambition and he is already an accomplished violinist. His ability as a basketball player is well known. Part of his leisure time finds him at Boucher's Filling Station. Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Relay Team, Junior-Senior Reception, Junior Prom Committee 3, Basketball 3, 4, Glee Club 4.

Good luck
Dick

Charles George Zink, Jr.

He doth indeed show some sparks that are like art.

Charlie is one of the few marshals who greet one in the hall with a wide grin and no words. He's a little fellow but he has a technique of hair-pulling that defends him against the largest of his classmates. Speaking of technique, he's a lion among the ladies. On a list of his numerous abilities are found cooking and mending socks. Considering his diminutive frame, Charlie is amazingly large on the inside. Orchestra 2, 3, 4. Assistant Track Manager, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Pep Club, Dramatic Club, Track Manager 4.

Best of luck

James James Contaxes

James is one of our dark haired Greek boys. He is likeable and has a willing smile. James's hobby is writing short essays for different magazines and papers. Outside of school he belongs to a Greek organization called the E.N.S. We regret we could not persuade him to sit for his picture.
